

CIVICS RESOURCES

from the Library of Congress

Teaching tools and online resources support students as they explore key issues of civic life using powerful primary sources from the Library of Congress.

CONGRESS.GOV

The official website for U.S. federal legislative information includes engaging videos on the legislative process

THE CONSTITUTION: A PRIMARY SOURCE SET

Explore the creation of the United States Constitution with early drafts, letters, and handwritten notes from Alexander Hamilton, Thomas Jefferson, George Washington, and more.

ELECTIONS: A PRESENTATION

Examine the past and present of American parties, issues, and the right to vote.

INTERACTIVE ACTIVITIES ON CONGRESS, CIVIC PARTICIPATION AND PRIMARY SOURCES

Engaging online projects help young people learn about Congress and civic participation using primary sources. These projects were developed by a number of organizations and supported by grants from the Library of Congress.

TEACHING WITH THE LIBRARY BLOG

Quick, easy-to-use teaching ideas based on the Library's primary sources.

CHRONICLING AMERICA - HISTORIC AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS

Explore politics, government, and world leaders through yesterday's headlines.

Official Program, Woman Suffrage Procession

Children at the Weill public school

United States presidential election 2012, results by state

Americans all

Civil rights march on Washington, DC